

*An Evening with John Gabriel

John Gabriel made his Los Angeles concert debut July 6th 2015 at Sterling's Upstairs At The Federal. "They just don't make John Gabriel's anymore!," said Sterling. That sentiment couldn't have been more clearly understood than by the full house at Sterling's on July 6th when the longtime daytime star of Ryan's Hope, Days of Our Lives, and General Hospital, rapturously treated the full house to a string of classic American music. "Perfection personified," declared Sterling. "A true crooner... a wonderful actor and a great gentleman.... oozing with style that just can't be taught. He's the type of performer that young singers should aspire to be."

Gabriel regaled his fans and friends with favorites like 'When Sunny Gets

Blue', 'That's Life', a medley of 'Nice Work if You Can Get It' and 'Hooray for Love', and sentimental, ballads like 'Good Morning Heartache', and 'Nature Boy'. "Add the one and only Shelley Markham on piano to that kind of a set list and... well... it just doesn't get any better than that,"

Sterling concluded.

-Broadway World/LA